1. All vendors are responsible for handling their own sales & displays, including set-ups and take downs. The use of stakes is not allowed on the courthouse grounds. Vendors need to be prepared to provide their own power source. There are a VERY limited number of booths that will have access to on site power. If you require one of these, please contact the Festival Committee Chairpersons at festivals.sandpiperartgallery@gmail.com or Sherry Jones 406-270-9727 or Carole Carberry 803-968-4678, to verify availability
2. Vendor parking is provided in the Linderman School parking lot on the east side of the Festival. Booths will be set-up on time and will remain open the entire duration of the show. Saturday's set-up time is 7:30-9:30am. Booths are to be open 10:00am to 5:00pm.
3. It is the sole responsibility of the Food Vendor named in this application to insure that displays and products sold cause no dangers to public safety. Sandpiper Art Gallery assumes no responsibility for harm caused to individuals due to negligence of any kind on the part of Food Vendors.
4. Sales must be conducted in a professional, courteous and honest manner. Complaints about Food Vendors should be directed to the Festival Chairperson.
5. Vendors are responsible for the clean-up of their individual spaces during and after the show. Food vendors must follow Lake County Regulations for sanitation and must have their Lake County Permit available to the Festival Committee.

Non-profit food vendors do not pay a booth fee.
